

SVENSKA FORSKNINGSPENNINGSTUTET I ISTANBUL
SWEDISH RESEARCH INSTITUTE IN ISTANBUL

REVISITING THE T-SHAPED “ZAVIYE/‘IMARET” : BUILDINGS AND INSTITUTIONS IN EARLY OTTOMAN ARCHITECTURE

Workshop at the Swedish Research Institute in Istanbul SRII, 18-20 March 2013

Organisers: Zeynep Oğuz, Maximilian Hartmuth, Marianne Boqvist

Program

Monday

14:00-14:30 Opening remarks

14:30-16:00 Panel 1

Hasan Karatas (University of St.Thomas/MN)

A dervish factory: the historical implications of the architecture and endowment deed of Yakup Pasha lodge-mosque in Amasya

Sara Ethel Wolper (University of New Hampshire)

Multiple histories and multiple functions: pre-Ottoman lodges and the formation of the Ottoman T-shaped zaviye

Paul Wordsworth (University of Copenhagen)

Accommodation in hostile lands: characterising caravanserais in Eastern Khorasan, from archaeological evidence

Discussion (30 min.)

16:00-16:30 Coffee break

16:30-18:00 Panel 2

Charlotta Hanner Nordstrand (Gothenburg University)

Byzantine built environments in Syria

Gertrud Olsson (KTH Stockholm)

From Byzantine mosaic pieces to Islamic tile ornamentation

Dimitris Loupis (Harvard University)

Forms and functions of T-shaped buildings. Examples from the Mediterranean and the Middle East.

SVENSKA FORSKNINGSPROJEKTIVET I ISTANBUL
SWEDISH RESEARCH INSTITUTE IN ISTANBUL

Discussion (30 min.)

19:00- Reception followed by a buffet dinner at the SRII

Tuesday

09:30-13:30 Excursion

A tour of Mahmud Pasha Camii, Atik Ali Pasa Camii, Eski Imaret (Pantepoptes), Selimiye and Murad Pasha Camii led by Yavuz Sezer, MIT

15:00-16:30 Panel 3

Heath Lowry (Princeton/Bahçeşehir University)

Were the Ottoman T-type zaviye-imarats originally built as residences? A case study of the Hacı-Gazi Imarats in Gümülçine, Serres & Yenice-i Vardar

York Norman (Buffalo State College)

The İsa Bey İmaret/Zaviyes of Sarajevo and Skopje: the legacy of an Ottoman local dynasty

Machiel Kiel (NIT)

The T-plan buildings in early Ottoman architecture: materials for a synthesis of the theories and thoughts about it

Discussion (30 min.)

16:30-17:00 Coffee break

17:00-18:30 Panel 4

Panagiotis Kontolaimos (National Technical University of Athens)

Zaviye and the early ottoman city. Context and role

Sedat Emir (Dokuz Eylül University),

A Unique Type of Building Specific to the Early Ottoman Architecture: The Problems Concerning the Typology

Zeynep Oğuz (Harvard University)

The palatial elements in the zaviyes of early Ottoman rulers

Discussion (30 min.)

18:30-19:00 Refreshments

SVENSKA FORSKNINGSPENNINGSTUTET I ISTANBUL
SWEDISH RESEARCH INSTITUTE IN ISTANBUL

19:00 Open Lecture

Alberto Fabio Ambrosio (Dominican Institute Istanbul, EHESS)
Anti-Sufism in the Turkish Republican Era

Followed by a reception at the SRII

Wednesday

09:30-11:00 Panel 5

Suna Çağaptay (Bahçeşehir University/MIT)
Locally grown and globally known: origins of the inverted T-plan buildings in Bithynia revisited

Amy Singer (Tel Aviv University)
Early Ottoman 'imārets whom did they serve?

Grigor Boykov (NIT/Sofia University)
Unveiling T-shaped imaret/zaviyes in the Ottoman realm: what makes (documentary) archeology important?

Discussion (30 min.)

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

11:30-13:00 Panel 6

Çiğdem Kafescioğlu (Boğaziçi University)
Lives and afterlives of an urban institution and its spaces: the Ottoman convent-mosque in Istanbul and beyond

Johan Mårtelius (KTH Stockholm)
The architectural synthesis of Murat I

Maximilian Hartmuth (University of Vienna)
What was an early Ottoman "imâret"? Architecture and institution-building on the Christian-Muslim frontier in the fourteenth century.

Discussion (30 min.)

13:00-13:45 Concluding remarks