

When Sweden was ruled from Moldova 1709 1713

Symposium at Swedish Research Institute in Istanbul (SRII)

17-18 May 2013

PROGRAMME

17 May

09.00 REGISTRATION AND COFFEE

09.30 OPENING OF SYMPOSIUM. Introduction and welcoming words by Prof. Ph.D. Birgit Schlyter, Director of SRII, and Ph.D. Per Sandin, project leader of When Sweden was ruled from Moldova

SESSION ONE Chair - Ph.D. Johan Engström, former Director of the Swedish Army Museum etc.

09.45 LECTURE 1 The high politic game between Sweden, Russia and the Sublime Porte 1709–1714
Ph.D. Lars Ericson Wolke, Professor in military history, National Defence College, Stockholm

10.15 LECTURE 2 The kalabalik in Varnitsa
Author and historian Bengt Liljegren

10.45 LECTURE 3 Kalabalyk in testimonies and contemporaries' memoirs
Ph.D. Victor Tvircun, Professor, Ambassador, Secretary General of BSEC

11.15 LECTURE 4 King Charles XII at Bender and Varnita. History and memory
Ph.D. Elena Ploșniță, Scientific Secretary of The National Museum of Archaeology and History of Moldova, Ass. Professor, State University of Moldova

12.00 13.30 LUNCH at SRII (by invitation)

SESSION TWO

14.00 17.00 Visit to the Başbakanlık Osmanlı Arşivleri, “Office of the Prime Minister Ottoman Archives”, that holds the central State archives

19.00 Reception hosted by Torkel Stiernlöf, Council General, and Prof. Birgit Schlyter, Director of SRII, at the Swedish Council General on the symposium “When Sweden was ruled from Moldova” (by invitation)

18 May

09.00 COFFEE

SESSION THREE Chair Ph.D. Erik Norberg, member of The Royal Swedish Academy of Letters, History and Antiquities and former Director General of the National Archives of Sweden

09.30 LECTURE 5 From Carpolis to Constantinople: Swedish political reforms and everyday life during Charles XII:s stay in the Ottoman Empire

Ph.D. Åsa Karlsson, Editor-in-Chief, Dictionary of the Swedish National Biography

10.15 LECTURE 6 The Loyal Royal Architect. Nicodemus Tessin the Younger's projects for Charles XII during he King's absence

Ph.D. Marin Olin, Curator, National Museum, Stockholm, Ass. Prof.

10.45 LECTURE 7 King Charles XII and the expeditions to the Orient

Ph.D. Karin Ådahl, former Director of SRII, Ass. Professor in Art History, Uppsala University

11.15 LECTURE 8 Orlik and the Zaporog Cossacks

Ph.D. Yurii Zavchuk, Academy of Science and National Museum of Ukrainian History

11.45 LECTURE 9 Preliminary notes about the undated map named "RUSSIA" from the Swedish Military Archives or cartographical memorial of the Tatars' raids on Muscoy and a few words of warning MA Elżbieta Świącicka, Institute for Turkish Studies, Stockholm University

LUNCH 12.30-13.30 at SRII (by invitation)

SESSION FOUR

14:00 17:30

Visit to Topkapi Palace. Special sightseeing

19.00

FARWELL DINNER at restaurant Sofyali (by invitation)

THE SYMPOSIUM IS ORGANISED BY:
THE ROYAL ARMOURY, STOCKHOLM
AND THE SWEDISH RESEARCH INSTITUTE
IN ISTANBUL (SRII)

SPONSORS: FOUNDATION OF THE SWEDISH ARMOURY, KING GUSTAF VI
ADOLF'S FOND FOR SWEDISH CULTURE, SWEDISH CENTRAL BANK'S JUBILEE FOUNDATION, THE ROYAL SWEDISH PATRIOTIC SOCIETY AND ÅKE WIBERGS FOUNDATION