

Kashgar Revisited

Workshop to commemorate the 10th anniversary of the death of Ambassador Gunnar Jarring

Kashgar Revisited is sponsored by:

The Danish Council for Independent Research | Humanities (FKK)

The Royal Swedish Academy of Letters History and Antiquities

Asian Dynamics Initiative

The Nordic Institute of Asian Studies

The Department of Cross-Cultural and Regional Studies

Time: 10th -12th May 2012

Venue: Nordic Institute of Asian Studies
University of Copenhagen
Leifsgade 33, 3rd floor, 2300 Copenhagen

Organizers:

Ildikó Bellér-Hann (Copenhagen)

Birgit Schlyter (Istanbul)

Jun Sugawara (Tokyo)

Contact: ildiko@hum.ku.dk

Programme

1st day

CHAIR: Ildikó Bellér-Hann

- | | |
|--------------|---|
| 09.00-09.30 | Welcome address and introduction by the organizers |
| 09.30-10.15 | Paper 1 KEYNOTE Birgit Schlyter: The Turkological Legacy of Ambassador Gunnar Jarring |
| 10:15-11:00 | Paper 2 Arienne Dwyer: The contribution of the Jarring Lund Corpus to Turkestani language and culture studies |
| 11.00 -11.30 | Coffee break |

- 11.30-12.15 Paper 3 Rian Thum: The functions of writing in a 20th-century manuscript culture: an overview of the Eastern Turki manuscript corpus
- 12.15-13.00 Paper 4 Äsäd Sulaiman: From “Eastern Turki” to “Modern Uyghur” How did the Southern Dialects of “Eastern Turki” develop in to the “Modern Uyghur”? – A historical and Socio-Linguistic Discussion of “Kashgar Prints” during the transitional period (1880s-1930s)
- 13.00-14.30 Lunch break
- CHAIR: Jun Sugawara*
- 14.30-15.15 Paper 5 Abdurishid Yakup: The Khotan dialect of Uyghur as seen in Jarring’s transcription materials
- 15.15-16.00 Paper 6 Onuma Takahiro: The 1795 Khoqand mission and its negotiation with the Qing: Political and diplomatic space of Qing Kashgaria
- 16.00 – 16.30 Coffee break
- 16.30-17.15 Paper 7 Rune Stenberg: Closeness and marriage in Uyghur Kashgar
- 17.15-18.00 Paper 8 Jo Smith Finley & Dilmurat Mahmut: 'A man works for the land, a woman works for her man': gender roles and inter-generational change in Xinjiang.
- 18.00- 18.30 Discussant’s comments & discussion
- 19.00 Reception

2nd day

CHAIR: Birgit Schlyter

- 09.30-10.15 Paper 9 Eric Schluessel: Xinjiang and the Colonial Question: Punishment and Reform under Late-Qing Rule
- 10:15-11:00 Paper 10 Jun Sugawara: Şūfī Properties in Kāshghar according to documentary sources
- 11.00 -11.30 Coffee break
- 11.30-12.15 Paper 11 Alexandre Papas: Muslim Reformism in Xinjiang: Reading the Journal Yengī Hayāt (1933-1937)
- 12.15-13.00 Paper 12 Thierry Zarccone: Underground Naqshbandi Madrasas in Southern and Northern Xinjiang after 1949
- 13.00-14.30 Lunch break

CHAIR: James Millward

- 14.30-15.15 Paper 13 Rahile Dawut: Ordam Mazar: The Intersection of Varied Belief Systems in Trans-Cultural Xinjiang
- 15.15-16.00 Paper 14 Chris Hann & Ildikó Bellér-Hann: Magic, Science and Religion in Xinjiang
- 16.00 – 16.30 Coffee break
- 16.30-17.15 Paper 15 Fredrik Fällman: Defining the past and shaping the future – reflections on 20th century Uyghur-Han-Hui relations and the struggle for rights and precedence today
- 17.15-18.00 Discussant's comments & discussion
- 19.30 Conference dinner

3rd day

Visiting the Gunnar Jarring Collection of Lund University Library
