Turkey - Brazil: do odd partners really make good couples?

Tuesday, February 21, 2017
19:00

Ekrem Eddy Güzeldere completed his PhD thesis at the University of Hamburg in 2016, entitled "Turkey-Brazil relations: a role theoretical analysis of emerging powers." From 2005 until October 2015 he worked in Istanbul for a German foundation and an international think tank. He completed a master's degree in political sciences at the Free University of Berlin (2000) and the post-graduate "Euromasters" degree at universities in Bath, Paris, and Madrid (2001). Furthermore he has a master's degree in Peace Studies from Hagen University (2008). In December 2014 he published a journalistic book about Brazil in German, entitled "Brasilien - fast one Klischees" (Brazil without stereotypes). Since early 2017 he is again based in Istanbul.
