

SPRING LECTURES 2015

Pekka Tuominen
Fellow at SRII, University of Helsinki

Moral Communities, Cultural Intimacy and Symbolic Boundaries in the Beyoğlu District of Istanbul

Tuesday, March 17, 2015

19:00

Pekka Tuominen is a social and cultural anthropologist, based at the University of Helsinki, currently working as a visiting researcher at the Swedish Research Institute in Istanbul (SRII). His most recent research on Turkey focuses on the qualities of urban space in Istanbul; how the city is understood as interaction of layers of historical consciousness together with its physical and symbolic boundaries. In addition, he has been working in multidisciplinary projects, involving scholars of urban studies, artists and designers, dealing with the questions of future developments of the urban sphere.

For attendance, registration at helins@sri.org.tr is necessary

Refreshments are served after the lecture
