

SRII Network of Researchers

Name, title	Inga-Lill Aronsson, Dr.
Contact details (incl. links to personal websites)	Email: inga-lill.aronsson@abm.uu.se . Mobile: +46704250530. Web: www.abm.uu.se
Current and previous position/affiliation	2002 - present. Senior lecturer in museum and cultural heritage studies, Uppsala University. 2006 - 2011 (Dec). Previous Director of NOHA (Network on Humanitarian Action), Uppsala University.
Areas of interest (max 100 words)	My research interests revolve around heritage in conflict and post-conflict areas; humanitarian action; involuntary displacement; gender; local participation and knowledge production.
Current research project (100 words)	2012 - 2015. Researcher and department coordinator for the research project Mind and Nature . A multi-disciplinary research project. http://www.arkeologi.uu.se/Forskning/Projekt/mind-nature/ 2013. Lead researcher. Involuntary resettlement and local participation . Longitudinal study of development induced displaced people. 2009-- Lead researcher. Transition, Memory and Reconciliation - inquiry into the Roles and Functions of Cultural and Natural Heritages in Areas of Conflict and Disaster . A multi-disciplinary research project.
Keywords (5-10)	Heritage, conflict, displacement, humanitarian action, local participation.
Relevant publications (max 10)	2002. Negotiating Involuntary Resettlement: a study of local bargaining during the construction of the Zimapán dam . Uppsala University. Department of Cultural Anthropology and Ethnology. Occasional Papers 17. Published as talking book in 2010. 2005. Aronsson, Inga-Lill & Birgitta Meurling (Eds.). Det bekömda museet. Genusperspektiv i museologi och museiverksamhet . (Gender Perspectives on Museums). Skrifter utgivna av Institutionen för ABM, Uppsala universitet. Vol 1. Reprinted in 2009. Published as talking book in 2006. 2009. "The Paradox with Local Participation in Development-Caused Forced Displacement and Resettlement". Romanian Journal of Sociology . XX, Nr. 1-2/2009. pp. 37-59. www.revistadesociologie.ro . 2011. Inga-Lill Aronsson & Maj-Britt Andersson. "Why World Cultural Heritage? Democracy. Local participation and knowledge production in the world culture nomination of Farms in Hälsingland, Sweden". Conference Proceedings. The 16th International Congress of Anthropological and Ethnological Sciences (IAE) Kunming, China, 27 - 31 July, 2009 . 2013. Susan Tamondong, Inga-Lill Aronsson, Patrick Claude Giraud, Chris de Wet, Michael Cernea, Ted Downing, Thayer Scudder, Anthony Oliver-Smith. Sharing Wisdom From the Pioneers: Reflections on the Enduring Questions in Resettlement and Impoverishment. Article based on the concluding panel presented at the International Conference on Development-Induced Displacement and Resettlement: Bridging Research and Practice, Filling the Knowledge, 22-23 March 2013, University of Oxford. In press.

2013. "Det ambivalenta kulturarvet: fallet Terror Haza i Budapest". (The Ambivalent Cultural Heritage: the Case of Terror Haza in Budapest). Dragomanen 15/2013. Svenska Forskningsinstitutet i Istanbul. In press.

I give my consent to the publication of the information above on the SRII website <http://www.srii.org/>